

ATTITUDES TOWARDS TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE: A GLOBAL OVERVIEW

1 February 2018

Polivalente Room
ICS-ULisboa

Organization: Filipa Raimundo (ICS-ULisboa)

Sponsored by: Research Groups 'Regimes and Political Institutions' & "Social and Political Attitudes: Resilience and Change"

9.00am Opening

José Luís Cardoso, ICS Director

Filipa Raimundo, ICS, University of Lisbon

9.15am Panel 1. Attitudes towards transitional justice in Latin America

Chair: Andrés Malamud (ICS, University of Lisbon)

Discussant: Jorge Vala (ICS, University of Lisbon)

Darío Páez Rovira, Universidad País Vasco (Spain), A. Espinosa, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (Peru) and A. Mathias, UPV and Paraíba University (Brazil), Evaluation of TRC, political orientation, attitudes towards past, perception of emotional climate and social trust: a metaanalytical integration of surveys in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Equator, Paraguay, Peru and Uruguay

Anderson Mathias, EHU/Universidad País Vasco (Spain) & Agustín Espinosa, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (Peru) Political beliefs and attitudes towards the Brazilian Truth Commission: a comparison between pre during and post government impeachment

Angela Moreira, FGV-RJ (Brazil), Transitional justice in Brazil: victims' views on the National Truth Commission

11.00am Coffee break

11.15am Panel 3 Attitudes towards transitional justice in post-conflict situations

Chair: Edalina Sanches (ICS, University of Lisbon)

Discussant: Vasco Martins (CES, University of Coimbra)

Dinka Čorkalo Biruški, University of Zagreb (Croatia), How apology and forgiveness are related to post-war social reconstruction: some qualitative and quantitative findings from Croatia

Joaquim Pires Valentim, FPCE/University of Coimbra (Portugal), 'A benevolent colonialism': Social representations and attitudes towards the Portuguese colonial past.

Rosa Cabecinhas, CECS/University of Minho (Portugal), Social representations of colonialism, perceived (in)justice and attitudes towards reparation: findings from Angola, Cape Verde, Guinea-Bissau, Mozambique and Portugal

1.00pm Lunch break

2.30pm Panel 2 Attitudes towards transitional justice in Europe

Chair: José Santana-Pereira (ISCTE - Lisbon University Institute)

Discussant: Pedro Magalhães (ICS, University of Lisbon)

Alex Sczcerbiak, University of Sussex (UK), Truth revelation and party and ideological alignments in post-communist Poland

Roman David, Lingnan University (Hong Kong), Does support for Political Parties and Transitional Justice have a Communist Origin in the Czech Republic?

Filipa Raimundo, ICS, University of Lisbon & Sofia Serra da Silva, ICS, University of Lisbon and CIES/ISCTE, Lisbon University Institute, Portuguese victims and their attitudes towards transitional justice

4.15pm Coffee Break

4.30 pm Roundtable: The politicization of transitional justice

Octavio Amorim Neto (EBAPE, Getúlio Vargas Foundation), António Costa Pinto (ICS, University of Lisbon); Tiago Fernandes (FCSH, Nova University of Lisbon) and Jeremy Sarkin (NOVA University Law School),