

Women and Slavery in Africa and America

A Comparative Approach

📍 School of Arts and Humanities
University of Lisbon

📅 July 4-5, 2024

CALL FOR PAPERS

Keynote Speakers

Adriana Dantas Reis

Universidade Estadual
de Feira de Santana

Mariana P. Candido

Emory University

Organisers

Eugénia Rodrigues

Centro de História
Universidade de Lisboa

Robson Costa

Centro de História
Universidade de Lisboa

The objective of this conference is to discuss the multiple faces of slavery of women and girls in America and Africa, from a comparative, regional or local perspective. We welcome proposals in Portuguese, English or Spanish, containing a title, name of the applicant, email address, an abstract of up to 300 words and a biographical note of a maximum of 200 words. Proposals must be sent to conferencewomenslavery@gmail.com.

Deadline for submitting proposals: March 25, 2024.

This event is organised and financed by Project SLAVESRELIGION - Slaves of Religion: Paternalism and Resistance, Brazil (HORIZON-MSCA Postdoctoral Fellowships 2021, GA 101065425) and by Portuguese national funds through FCT - Foundation for Science and Technology, I.P, in the scope of the projects UIDB/04311/2020 and UIDP/04311/2020 (CH-ULisboa).